1. [redacted] advised me this morning that Colonel Berg has completed his briefing of [redacted] called [redacted] this morning and assured the latter of his wholehearted cooperation. [redacted] plans to nominate an officer to work with our Office of Communications on the same basis that [redacted] is working with [redacted]

2. This officer whom [redacted] will nominate is presumably to be about a Lieutenant Colonel. He will not be under the purview of Colonel Berg, however. Once the nomination is known to [redacted] by name, he will contact us and we will advise Walt [redacted] so that the necessary clearances may be generated.
